Course Description

- Describe the course briefly

- How does it contribute to the curriculum of the department or the College?

- Should the course be taught? Why?

- Describe the positive aspects of working on and/or teaching this course.

- Describe the potential complications associated with teaching this course.

- Adapted from Larry Lovell-Troy and Paul Eickmann, Course Design for College Teachers. Educational Technology Publications (January 1992)